Centralized Allotment Process

Admission /Allotment of seats under merit quota is governed by a Centralised Allotment Process. Selection/ Allotment of a candidate to any college will be based on the rank of the candidate and the availability of the seats. A reserved category candidate entitled to admission on the basis of his/her merit will be deemed to have been admitted as an open category candidate and not as a reserved category candidate. The University will conduct an Admission counselling for the candidates selected from the rank list based on merit and norms for communal reservation. An Allotment Memo will be issued to the candidates during the Counselling. It is obligatory for the candidates to report to the college to which he/she is allotted. Failure to appear before the Principal concerned for joining the course on the prescribed date and time will result in the forfeiture of his/her claim for admission to the course and he/she will not be considered for any vacancies arising in future. The College Option exercised at the time of counselling will be final and the candidate is bound to accept the allotment as per the option. There will be no mutual transfer between the candidates from one college to another.
