3. Item No. OA 3 (a) of the minutes of the meeting of the University Research Committee held on 20.01.2020.

ORDER

As per the U.O. cited (1), scholars who got registration for Ph.D. Programme were allowed to write the title of the research work in their Ph.D. synopsis and thesis in any letter form (capital letter, small letter or both) irrespective of the form of the letters used in the registration order for showing the title of their research work. In addition to the dispensation granted, vide the U. O. cited (1), the University Research Committee held on 24.06.2019, resolved to recommend, vide the paper read as (2) above, to permit the research scholars to print the title of the research work, in bold, italicized, underlined or the use of any of the three, in their Ph.D. synopsis and thesis, irrespective of the form of the letters used in the Registration Order for showing the title of their research work and also with the stipulation that there shall be no change in spelling, punctuation marks used and letter spacing.

As per the paper read as (3) above, the University Research Committee held on 20.01.2020, resolved to recommend to :

- Retain the earlier suggestions regarding typographical emphasis (mode of printing the title of research work) as per Item No. III of the minutes of the meeting of the University Research Committee held on 24.06.2019.
- Modify U. O. No. 5411/AX/3/2015/Academic dated 18.09.2015.

The Vice-Chancellor has approved the recommendations, vide the paper read as (3) above.

The University Order cited (1) stands modified to this extent.

Orders are issued accordingly.
