GENERAL CONDITIONS

Sealed tenders are invited for the supply of the materials as specified in the schedule below/attached:-

1. The tenders should be addressed to the officer mentioned below in a sealed cover with the tender number and name shown below duly superscribed on the cover.

2. The tenders should be in the prescribed form which can be obtained from the officer mentioned below on payment of the price which is also noted below. Duplicate copies of tender forms will also be issued at the rate specified below. The cost of tender forms once paid will not be refunded. Tenders which are not in the prescribed form are liable to be rejected. The rates quoted should be only in Indian currency. Tenders in any other currency are liable to rejection.

3. Intending tenderers should send their tenders so as to reach the officer mentioned below, on due date and time (noted below). No tender received after the specified date and time will be accepted on any account. The rates will be considered for acceptance till the date mentioned below. Tenders not stipulating period of firmness and tenders with price variation clause and / or 'subject to prior sale' condition are liable to be rejected.

4. (a) Every tenderer who has not registered his name with the state government (Stores Purchase Department), should send along with his tender, an earnest money of one percent of the total cost of the articles tendered for (rounded to the nearest rupee subject to a minimum of Rs. 30 if the amount calculated at one percent of the value of articles tendered for falls below Rs. 30. The amount may be paid either by remittance into any Government Treasury in chalan in duplicate, duly countersigned by the officer mentioned below, or by Demand Drafts (crossed on the local branch of the State bank of Travancore State Bank of India) drawn in favour of the officer mentioned below. In the case of remittance into the treasury, chalan receipt should be forwarded along with the tender. Cheques will not be accepted. The earnest money of the unsuccessful tenderers will be returned as soon as possible after the tenders are settled, but that of the successful tenderers will be adjusted towards the security that will have to be deposited for the satisfactory fulfillment of the contract. No interest will be paid for the earnest money deposited.

b) Tenderer whose names are registered with Government (Stores Purchase Department) are generally exempted from furnishing earnest money for such articles for which they are registered their names. If they tender for stores other than those for which they have registered their names, they will have to furnish earnest money as in the case of unregistered firms. Registered firms will have to quote invariably in every tender they submit the registration number assigned to them by the Stores Purchase Department.

c) Small Scale Industries and cottage Industries within the state, which are certified as such by the Director of Industries and Commerce or by the Regional Joint Director of Industries and Commerce will be exempted from furnishing earnest money against tenders and security deposit against contracts for supply of stores manufactured by them. In respect of security deposits the soundness and reliability of the concerns to undertake the contract should also be certified by the Director of Industries and Commerce or by the Regional Joint Director of Industries and Commerce.

d) The exemption stipulated in clauses (b) and (c) above will not however, apply to tenders for the supply of raw materials, or dietary articles or supply of stores on rate or running contract basis.

5. The tenders will be opened on the appointed day and time in the office of the undersigned, in the presence of such of those tenderers or their nominees who may be present at that time.

6. If any tenderer withdraws from his tender before the expiry of the period fixed for keeping the rates firm for acceptance, the earnest money, if any, deposited by him will be forfeited to University or such action taken against him, as University think fit.

7. Tenderers shall invariably specify in their tenders the delivery conditions including the time required for the supply of articles tendered for.

8. a) The tenderers shall clearly specify whether the articles offered bear Indian Standards Institution Certification Mark or not. In such cases, they shall produce copies of certification mark along with their tender in support of it.

b) Tenderers shall clearly specify whether the goods are offered from indigenous sources, from imported stocks in India or from foreign sources to be imported under a licence. University reserves the right to reject offers for import of goods if the Import Trade Control Policy in force at the time of award of the contract prohibits or restricts such imports.

9. The final acceptance of the tenders rests entirely with the University who do not bind themselves to accept the lowest or any tender. But the tenderers on their part should be prepared to carry out such portion of the supplies included in their tenders as may be allotted to them.

10. In the case of materials of technical nature the successful tenderer should be prepared to guarantee satisfactory performance for a definite period under a definite penalty.

11. Communication of acceptance of the tender normally constitutes a concluded contract. Nevertheless the successful tenderer shall also execute an agreement for the due fulfillment of the contract with in the period to be specified in the letter of acceptance. The contractor shall have to pay all the stamp duty, lawyer's charges and other expences incidental to the execution of the agreement. Failure to execute the agreement within the period specified will entail the penalties set out in para 12 below.

12 a) The successful tenderer shall, before signing the agreement, and within the period specified in the letter of acceptance of his tender, deposit a sum equivalent to 5 percent of the value of the contract as security for the satisfactory fulfillment of the contract less the amount of money deposited by him along with his tender. The amount of security may be deposited in the manner prescribed in clause 4 supra or in the Government Treasury Savings Bank and the, Pass Book pledged to Purchasing Officer or in Fixed Deposit Receipts of State Bank of Travancore / State Bank of India endorsed in favour of the above officier. Letters of gurantee in the prescribed form for the amount of security from an approved Bank will also be considered enough at the discretion of University. If the successful tenderer fails to deposit the security and execute the agreement as stated above, the earnest money deposited by him will be forfeited to University, and the contract arranged elsewhere at the defaulter's risk and any loss incurred by University on account of the purchase will be recovered from the defaulter who will, however, not be entitled to any gain accruing thereby. If the defaulting firm is a registered firm their registration is liable to be cancelled.

b) In cases where a successful tenderer, after having made partial supplies fails to fulfil the contracts in full, all or any of the materials not supplied may at the descretion of the Purchasing Officier, be purchased by means of another tender / quotation or by negotiation or from the next higher tenderer who had offered to supply already and the loss, if any, caused to the University shall thereby together with sums as may be fixed by the University towards damages be recovered from the defaulting tenderer.

c) Even in cases where no alternate purchases are arranged for the materials not supplied, the proportionate portion of the security deposit based on the cost of the materials not supplied at the rate shown in the tender of the defaulter shall be forfeited and balance alone shall be refunded.

13. The security deposit shall, subject to the conditions specified herein be returned to the contractor within three months after the expiration of the contract, but in the event of any dispute arising between the University and the contractor within three months after the expiration of the contract, but in the event of any dispute arising between the University and the contractor. In ll cases where there are gurantee for the goods supplied the security deposit will be released only after the expiry of the gurantee period.

14 a) All payments to the contractors will be made by the Purchasing Officer in due course:

i) by cheques or drafts on the State Bank of Travancore (at any of their Principal Branches in India)

ii) in the case of supplies from abroad drafts as may be arranged between the contracting parties,

b) All incidental expences incurred by the University for making payments outside the District in which the claim arises shall be borne by the contractor.

15. The tenderers shall quote also the percentage of rebate (discount) offered by them in case the payment is made promptly within fifteen days / within one month of taking delivery of stores.

16. Ordinarily payments will made only after the supplies are actually verified and taken to stock but in exceptional cases, payments against satisfactory shipping documents including certificates of Insurance will be made up to 90 percent of the value of the materials at the discretion of University. Bank charges incurred in connection with payment against documents through Bank will be to the account of the contractor. The firms will produce stamped preciepted invoices in all cases where payments (advance / final) for release of railway receipts shipping documents are made through banks. In exemptional cases where the stamped receipts of the Firms are not received for the payments (in advance) the unstamped receipt of the bank (ie., counterfoils of pay-in slips issued by the Bank) alone may be accepted as valid proof for the payment made.

17. The contractor shall not assign or make over the contract or the benefits or burdens there of to any other person or body corporate. The contractor shall not underlet or sublet to any person or persons or body corporate the execution of the contract or any part there of without the consent in writing of the Purchasing Officer who shall have absolute power to refuse such consent or to rescind such consent (if given) at any time if he is not satisfied with the manner in which the contract is being executed and no allowance or compensation shall be made to the contractor or the sub-contractor upon such rescission. Provided always that if such consent be given at any time, the contractor shall not be relieved from any obligation, duty or responsibility under this contract.

18. a) In case the contractor becomes insolvent or goes into liquidation, or makes or proposes to make any assignment for the benefit of his creditors or proposes any composition with his creditors for the settlement of his debts, or carries on his business or the contract under inspection on behalf of his creditors or in case any receiving order or orders, for the administration of his estate are made against him, or in case the contractor shall commit any act of insolvency or in case in which under any clause or clauses of this contract the contractor shall have rendered himself liable to damages amounting to the whole of his security deposits, the contract shall thereupon, after notice given by the Purchasing Officer to the contractor, be determined and the University may complete the contract in such time and manner and by such persons as the University shall think fit. But determination of the contract shall be without any prejudice to any right or remedy of the University against the contractor or his sureties in respect of any breach of contract theretofore committed by the contractor. All expences and damages caused to University by any beach of contract by the contractor shall be paid by the contractor to University, and may be recovered from him under the provisions of the Revenue Recovery Act in force in the State.

b) The persons / contractors submitting tenders should produce a solvency certificate, clearly indicating to what extent they are solvent from the Tahsildar of the Taluk where they reside, along with their tenders.
