In association with

Mahatma Gandhi University welcomes you to the 'SUTPBM 2020' Virtual Conference

School of Biosciences (SBS), Inter-University Centre for Organic Farming and Sustainable Agriculture (IUCOFSA) and Business Innovation and Incubation Centre (BIIC) of Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam, Kerala, India cordially invite the scientists, researchers, teachers, students and agriculturalists to the International virtual conference on “Sustainable Utilisation of Tropical Plant Biomass (SUTPBM): Opportunities for innovation and entrepreneurship in Kerala, scheduled on 14-15 December 2020.

SUTPBM 2020

There is emerging global demand and market for the health promoting food products manufactured using sustainable, environment friendly and fair trade practices. Production and marketing of knowledge intensive value added products can accelerate the productivity of the agro-food sector and thereby the income of the people living on agriculture. This will also promote the improved public health, social welfare, green environment and a better quality of life. In this background, the conference on sustainable utilisation of tropical plant biomass for producing value added products using the advanced knowledge and technology is important and timely to ignite the innovation and entrepreneurship among the emerging entrepreneurs. This conference will provide a scientific forum for addressing the utilisation of plants for the food, feed, fuel, manure, healthcare, biofertilizers, habitat restoration and development of environment friendly products for the wellbeing of the society. It aims to provide a global platform to promote, collaborate and collectively endeavor to solve the complex problems associated with effective utilisation of plant biomass. Several national and international experts will share their views and expertise on the recent developments in the utilisation of plant biomass for sustainable bio-products.

THEME

- ❖ Utilisation of plant biomass for food, feed, fuel, manure and medicine
- ❖ Ayurvedic informatics for a sustainable Kerala
- ❖ Utilisation of marine plants for food and drugs
- ❖ Experimental research in Biology, Chemistry, Medicine & Pharmacy related to medicinal plants
- ❖ Design and discovery of molecules of therapeutic effect from plants
- ❖ Importance and challenges in plant biomass utilisation through various technological interventions
- ❖ Importance of plants in habitat restoration and environment development

SESSIONS

The program will be conducted as a series of webinars covering the following sessions:

- ◆ Technical Session
- ◆ Panel Discussion
- ◆ Industry Forum
- ◆ Young Scientist Presentation and Poster Session
