

CENTRE FOR WEST ASIAN STUDIES

School of International Relations and Politics
Mahatma Gandhi University, Kottayam

Online Special Talk on

“FATHOMING THE TRAJECTORY, LEGAL COMPLEXITIES, AND FUTURE PROSPECTS OF AN INDIAN NURSE'S STRUGGLE IN YEMEN”

13 January 2024, Saturday

Time: 5.30 PM (IST)

G Meet: <https://meet.google.com/qao-yafx-opb>

Speaker:

Adv. Subhash Chandran K R
(Advocate, Supreme Court of India)

Subhash Chandran K R, an Advocate-on-Record at the Supreme Court of India, boasts a decade-long career enrolled with the Bar Council of Kerala since 2009. His independent practice spans various legal arenas, including the Supreme Court, Delhi High Court, and other legal forums. Subhash excels in civil, criminal, family, service, labour, consumer, commercial, constitutional, and environmental laws and arbitration. Serving as a legal advisor to diverse organizations, offering pro-bono litigation for migrant labourers, refugees, and disabled individuals. Actively engaged internationally, Subhash co-founded Lawyers Beyond Borders (LBB) India and held various roles in legal associations and organizations, emphasizing his commitment to social justice

Chair of the Session:

Dr. Bijulal M.V

Chairperson, Centre for West Asian Studies
School of International Relations and Politics
Mahatma Gandhi University