ORDER

The Hon. Director, Institute for Multidisciplinary Programmes in Social Sciences (IMPSS), vide read (1) above, requested to consider the B.A. Graduates from IMPSS taking Exit option in the Sixth Semester of the Five Year Integrated M.A. Programme, for B.Ed. admissions. The Hon. Director also requested to grant the P.G. weightage, for the Five Year Integrated M.A. Graduates, in the B.Ed. Admissions. Another request vide read (2) above, was received to consider the last semester students of Five Year Integrated P.G. Programme in the B.Ed admissions.

Opinion regarding the matter was received from Convenor, Expert Committee-Education (U.G.), vide read (3) above. Considering the expert opinion, the Hon'ble Vice Chancellor, on 09.06.2025, exercising the power as provided in Section 10(17) Chapter III of the Mahatma Gandhi University Act 1985, permitted :

- (i) to grant additional weightage for P.G. in the B.Ed. admissions, for the candidates who have completed Five Year Integrated P.G. Programme. Such candidates can enter their U.G. and P.G. as separate components and the index marks may be calculated as in the case of other graduates giving weightage for the P.G. if completed.
- (ii) to consider the candidates, taking Exit option in the Sixth Semester of the Five Year Integrated P.G. Programme, in the B.Ed. admissions, based on their U.G. Degree.
- (iii) to consider the Final Semester students, studying in the Mahatma Gandhi University for the Five Year Integrated P.G. Programme, in the B.Ed. admissions, based on the U.G. Degree (considering the mark/Grade upto the Sixth Semester) they would have received if they had taken Exit option in the Sixth Semester.

Orders are issued accordingly.
