ANNEXURE

7. Re-admission

Present	Amendment/Addition
Nil	iii) A student admitted to the MGU – BCA (Honours) programme after discontinuing a programme under the CBCS 2017 Regulation may transfer the credits of the courses acquired in the previous programme, under the eligible category, to the corresponding semesters for the award of the Bachelor's or Honours degree as per these regulations. This facility shall be available from the second semester to the sixth semester.
Nil	iv) If the credits already acquired are not compatible with the credit requirements under various categories of the MGU – BCA, the learner shall be required to earn the deficient credits by acquiring the required course credits through online or other approved methods.
Nil	v) Students readmitted under this section shall be assigned a Permanent Register Number (PRN) identical to that of the batch into which they are readmitted, and their Year of Admission to the MGU – BCA (Honours) programme shall be recorded as the year of their readmission to the programme.
Nil	vi) To be eligible for the specializations offered under the Honours regulations, a learner must earn the required credits by successfully completing the courses prescribed under these regulations. Credits earned for courses under the CBCS regulations shall not be accepted for the award of specializations under the MGU – BCA Honours regulations.
Nil	vii) A learner may cancel their admission to an MGU – BCA programme if they wish to discontinue it.
Nil	viii) After cancelling admission to a programme and securing admission to a new programme under MGU – BCA, the learner may utilize previously earned eligible credits, available in the learner's APPAR ID or DigiLocker, within the stipulated timeframe for the award of a Bachelor's, Honours, or Honours with Research degree.
