As per the Paper read as (1) above, the inclusion of new Guidelines for internal Redo in Three Year Unitary LL.B regulations (2018 onwards) / Five Year Integrated Double Degree LL.B (2018 onwards) was issued.

As per the Paper read as (2) above, the Principal of Sree Narayana Law College, Poothotta submitted a representation highlighting the practical difficulties in implementing Clause 9 of Annexure I of Internal Redo Guidelines issued under Paper read as (1) . As per the Clause 9 of Internal Redo Guidelines "The Head of the Department / College / Institution, on receipt of the University Order, shall make arrangements to enable re-doing the internal assessment subject to the condition that the teacher, who evaluated the regular internal assessment of the candidate shall not be entrusted with the evaluation of the internal assessments when the same is redone. The Head of the institution shall maintain a purposive supervision of the modalities for redoing internal assessment and ensure that the same is accomplished on par with the regular internal assessment in all respects. All documents related to each application shall be properly maintained in the office for record-keeping and future reference"

As per the Paper read as (3) above, the remarks of the Expert Committee (Law) were sought on the matter. The following recommendations submitted by the Expert Committee in Law were placed before the Academic Council Standing Committee.

" In exceptional cases where no other qualified teacher is available, the Principal may allow the same teacher to conduct the internal redo. This shall be permitted through a formal order with recorded reasons, and the proceedings shall be kept on record for future verification. The Principal shall ensure fairness in assessment and that the decision does not adversely affect the student." The Committee further records that it does not favour the conduct of internal redo in neighbouring institutions, as it may result in inconsistency of assessment standards, administrative complications, and possible dilution of institutional accountability."

This shall be permitted through a formal order with recorded reasons, and the proceedings shall be kept on record for future verification. The Principal shall ensure fairness in assessment and that the decision does not adversely affect the student.". And to modify the U.O No:11045 /ACA4/2024/MGU dtd 07.12.2024 accordingly.

The Vice Chancellor approved the above Recommendations vide Paper read (5), by exercising powers of the Academic Council under Section 10 (17), Chapter III, of Mahathma Gandhi University Act 1985
