Nil	vii) Learners who wish to discontinue from an admitted programme shall submit a request through the EDP portal using their profile login. Upon approval by the Principal of the institution, the status of the learner shall be marked as “Discontinued” in the portal.
Nil	viii) Learners whose status is marked as “Discontinued” may apply for readmission through the designated portal provided by the University.
Nil	ix) A learner shall be eligible for readmission only to the programme to which they were initially admitted.
Nil	x) Readmission shall be permitted only within the maximum duration allowed for programme completion, i.e., seven years, reckoned from the date of initial admission to the programme and inclusive of the time required for its completion.
Nil	xi) Learners who discontinue from an admitted programme after the completion of a semester examination shall seek readmission to the next semester of the same programme along with the subsequent batch.
Nil	xii) If a learner discontinues after course registration but before examination registration, they shall have the option to seek readmission either to the same semester or to the next semester, provided they are willing to acquire the required credits of that semester through the online mode.
Nil	xiii) If a learner discontinues after examination registration, they shall seek readmission to the next semester of the same programme along with the subsequent batch. Such learners shall be eligible to appear for the End Semester Evaluations in accordance with the provisions governing reappearance examinations.

Nil	xiv) Learners seeking readmission to the third semester may avail the option of major switching only after completing the readmission process. They shall be eligible to apply for major switching only if the schedule notified by the University for submission of applications remains open upon completion of the readmission process.

16. Attendance

Present	Amendment/Addition
Nil	iv) A student admitted to the MGU-B.VOC. (Honours) programme who is unable to complete 75% of the prescribed classroom activities—in physical, online, or blended modes, including any makeup activities specified by the course faculty for a course—will be required to acquire the corresponding course credit through online or other approved methods.
Nil	v) Condonation shall be availed for a maximum of two (2) semesters during the Bachelor's Degree Programme. Students who progress to the Honours Degree Programme shall be permitted to avail this facility for one (1) additional semester.
Nil	vi) The maximum shortage of attendance eligible for condonation shall be limited to fifty (50) hours per semester. Students shall be permitted to utilize a total of 50 hours across different courses in a semester.
Nil	vii) A student shall be eligible for condonation of shortage of attendance only if the student has secured a minimum of sixty-five percent (65%) attendance for the course in the semester concerned and has successfully completed the prescribed compensatory or make-up activities, as suggested by the course faculty, in accordance with the provisions laid down in the regulations.

Nil	viii) If condonation is availed for even a single course in a semester, it shall be treated as one instance out of the two (2) permitted instances during the Bachelor's Degree Programme.
Nil	ix) A student shall be eligible for semester progression even if they have availed the maximum number of condonations permitted.

19. Outcome Based Approach

Present	Amendment/Addition
Nil	iv) The Outcome Based Evaluation (OBE) results shall be published along with the semester examination results, based on the OBE completed for each course. The OBE result shall be reported in a three-tier format, in accordance with the provisions of the OBE Regulations of the University.
Nil	v) In the event of any change in the marks obtained by a student due to scrutiny, revaluation, correction of mark entry, or any other valid reason, the corresponding OBE result shall be updated up to a maximum of three (3) times at intervals of three (3) months, commencing from the date of initial publication of the semester results. Any further revision or republication of the OBE result beyond this period shall be made only on request from the student or the college concerned and with the recommendation of the Controller of Examinations of the University and approval of the Vice Chancellor.

Nil	vi) The OBE result sheet/marksheet shall bear the date of publication of the result and shall include a Quick Response (QR) Code to enable access to the latest updated OBE result for verification purposes. Verification of the most recent OBE result shall be facilitated through the designated University portal.
Nil	vii) The OBE result sheet shall carry a disclaimer stating that the result is provisional as on the date of publication and is liable to revision or updating in the event of scrutiny, revaluation, correction of mark entry, or any other valid reason, in accordance with the regulations of the University. The disclaimer content to be printed on the OBE marksheet is provided below. Disclaimer: The Outcome Based Evaluation (OBE) result shown herein is provisional as on the date of publication. The result is liable to revision or updating in the event of scrutiny, revaluation, correction of mark entry, or any other valid reason, in accordance with the regulations and decisions of the University.
Nil	viii) A certified copy of the OBE result may be obtained by the student on payment of the fee prescribed by the University. The updated OBE result shall be available for viewing and downloading free of cost for a period of seven (7) years from the date of publication of the semester result concerned. After the expiry of the said period, access to the OBE result shall be permitted on payment of the fee prescribed by the University from time to time.

20. Assessment and Evaluation

Present	Amendment/Addition
Nil	xxi) A student admitted to the MGU- B.VOC. (Honours) programme who fails an End Semester Evaluation (ESE) will have the option to request an Evaluation on Demand (EoD) after paying the specified fee, after the announcement of the semester results.
Nil	xxii) As no separate minimum pass mark is prescribed for the CCA, there shall be no provision for the repetition or re-appearance of the CCA under any circumstances.
Nil	xxiii) Students admitted to the MGU–B.VOC. (Honours) programme, who are not claiming the Bachelor’s Degree, and who are pursuing the Honours programme, shall be eligible to appear for the End Semester Evaluation (ESE) Improvement Examinations for semesters up to and including the Sixth (6) Semester, conducted by the University along with the subsequent admitted batches, on payment of the prescribed fee, during the prescribed period of study.
Nil	xxiv) Students who have claimed the Bachelor’s Degree shall not be eligible to appear for the End Semester Evaluation (ESE) Improvement Examinations for the Fifth (5) and Sixth (6) Semesters conducted by the University for the subsequent admitted batches.
Nil	xxv) Students who have been readmitted after discontinuation of the regular course shall also be eligible to avail themselves of the facility of improvement examinations, subject to the conditions stipulated in these regulations.
Nil	xxvi) A student who has failed in an End Semester Evaluation (ESE) shall be permitted to appear for the ESE a maximum of three (3) times, along with the batches admitted subsequent to the original admitted batch.

Nil	xxvii) Provision for Special Supplementary Examinations shall be available to students for their theory and practical examinations during the Fifth (5), Sixth (6), Seventh (7), and Eighth (8) Semesters.
Nil	xxviii) Malpractice in Theory and Practical Examinations (a) If a student is detected indulging in malpractice during a theory or practical examination conducted by the University, either by the Examination Invigilator, Examiners, Additional Chief Superintendent or Chief Superintendent of Examinations of the college concerned, or by the Examination Vigilance Squad appointed by the University, the examination shall be recorded with the status “Malpractice” on the University examination portal by the college on the same day of detection. (b) The details of the malpractice, along with the supporting report and documents, shall be communicated to Controller of Examinations of the University at the earliest by the Principal of the college concerned. (c) The result of the course in which the malpractice is detected shall be marked as withheld by the University and shall be published only subject to the decision of the enquiry conducted by the University in accordance with the prescribed malpractice regulations. (d) All examinations scheduled immediately after the examination in which malpractice is detected, during the same semester, shall be marked as Absent.

21. Practical Examination

Present	Amendment/Addition
Nil	vii) In the case of practical examinations, there shall be no provision for improvement examinations. However, if a student fails in a practical examination, the supplementary examination rules applicable to the programme shall apply.
